1/31/2023 16:46:26	How would Grants be scored?	Applications will be scored by an independent committee. The committee will review applications based on: + whether all requested attachments have been included + whether responses provide a clear and thoughtful description of the proposed program + whether the budget provided is well defined + the proposed program's overall alignment with the ReCAST program and goals Following the committee's review, the top 15-20 scored proposed programs will then be entered into the online community voting process on the Flint ReCAST website
1/31/2023 21:38:34	Can a for profit business with support from a non profit be eligible to apply?	More information will need to be provided regarding the two organizations' relationship
2/1/2023 10:28:52	I submitted a grant proposal during the last funding cycle in 2022, can I use the same proposal for this funding cycle? If so, will I have to rewrite the proposal?	The application is different and must be submitted online this year. Many of the questions are the same or similar so if you decide to pull from your previous proposal, that is up to you
2/1/2023 22:31:35	Areas of most need for youth	ReCAST emphasizes evidence-informed or based programming around mental health, health, career development, peer support, capacity building, cross-agency collaboration, and more - view previously funded activities on our website here: https://flintrecast.org/our-efforts/mini-grant-program/
2/2/2023 17:59:06	Does an educational and awareness series count as youth development?	Yes this sounds likely to fit
2/3/2023	Is the standard higher for previously funded organizations, or are you more interested in the strength of the program to deliver on measurable outcomes?	No the standard is not higher, we are looking for strong programs and ability to deliver on the stated outcomes
2/3/2023	If a for profit organization collaborates with a university does that meet the requirements?	If the university is a non-profit entity, this should meet the requirements
2/3/2023	Will you fund new organizations?	Yes, about half of the organizations funded in 2022 were new
